

VIRO

{ The Worlds First Environmentally
Friendly Banner Stand }

Made almost entirely from Bamboo, VIRO is the ideal alternative to conventional display solutions for businesses looking to comply with their green policies. As Bamboo is a totally renewable resource that has never been used in the display industry before, VIRO creates a strong point of difference without compromising on design, features and functionality.

VIRO is available in one size,
2000mm (h) by 800mm (w).
